October 24, 2004 Meeting Highlights

The Chicago Adlerian Society's Sunday October 24, 2004 breakfast social with Margot Adler was nothing short of magical. With her warmth, twinkling eyes, rich laugh, and wit, Margot regaled the crowd with her tales of growing up "Adlerian," her New York City neighborhood, the recent '60s Free Speech Activists reunion that she attended in Berkley, and her work as an NPR correspondent. Afterward, who did not check out the web site of Chris Phillips, creator of the "Socrates Café," whom Margot interviewed for the radio ... especially in light of ...

... Our upcoming seminar on Socratic Questioning! Full day course, Saturday, January 15, 2005 (9-4:30 p.m.), with NASAP vice president Al Milliren and Wes Wingett. Six CEUs. Watch this space for more information, including location and cost (affordable!).

Everyone speaks of the importance of Socratic questioning, but do you really know what it is, or how to use it? Well, learn it here!, and become a better counselor, communicator, and interviewer; gain greater insight into yourself and your clients; encourage others to work for the common good!

Thank you, Margot, Al, and Wes.

We also wish to acknowledge Karen Dresher for working with Margot to bring Alfred, Raissa, Alexandra, and Kurt Adler's books, journals, photos, and reprints to the Adler

School. And, thank you, Adler School, for arranging Margot's travel, which offered us the opportunity to meet with her.

Other news:

The Chicago Adlerian Society (CAS) meets once a month, usually the last Saturday or Sunday, save for holidays and special circumstances ... like Thanksgiving. Therefore, the next CAS meeting will be:

Sunday, November 21, 2001

3-5 p.m.

Bacino's, 75 East Wacker Drive, downtown Chicago

Elections to be held then. All those who contacted this "office" wanting to "serve" the common good: be ready to say a few words about yourself and why you desire the task(s) of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, or other office (membership drive, CAS' coordinator of NASAP'S 2006 conference in Chicago, etc.).

And, to get the holidays off to a great start: all who attend please bring your business cards, brochures, and information about your job and practice ... let's network and begin to spread some good Adlerian cheer ...

Dues, still cheap, at $20.
